

GREENBERG RESEARCH

Understanding Trump's Divided GOP

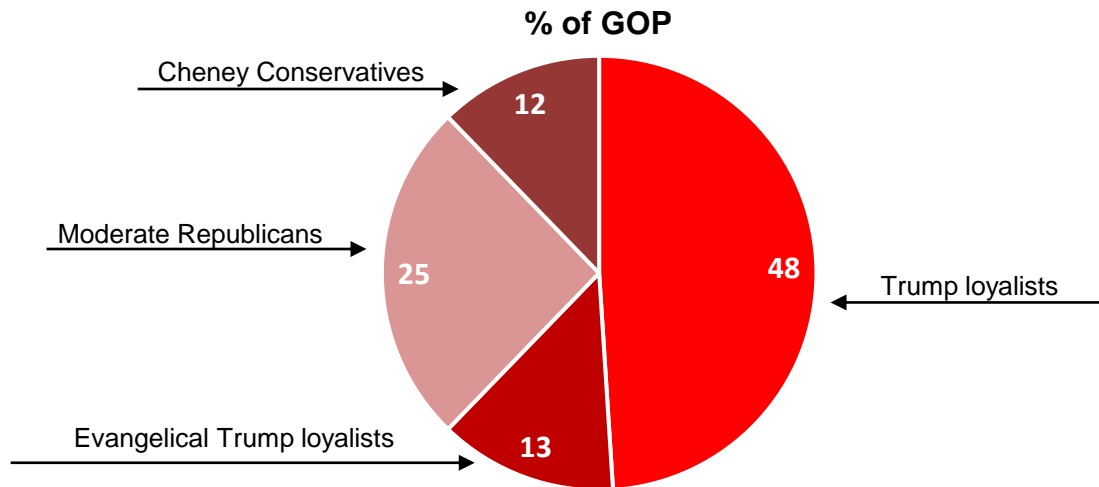

September 18-21, 2023

Trump's Republican Party: Methodology

In September 2023, Democracy Corps employed a focused and targeted methodology to gain valuable insights into key segments of the Republican party in two pivotal battleground states, Georgia and Arizona. Utilizing focus groups, this research initiative engaged with distinct demographic groups representing various facets of the Republican electorate.

Participants watched video segments developed with Page Gardner's PSG Consulting: Biden, Trump, Haley, other Republicans. You can see the clips from those links.

We had 4 groups with the key factions of the GOP -- Trump loyalists (23 percent), Evangelical Trump loyalists (6 percent), Cheney conservatives (6 percent) and Moderate Republicans (12 percent). They watched videos of Biden, Trump and the other candidates and wrote emails to Trump.

- Trump loyalists
- Evangelical Trump loyalists
- Moderate Republicans
- Cheney Conservatives

Through this strategic approach, we conducted in-depth discussions and dialogues with these selected segments, aiming to uncover nuanced perspectives, attitudes, and opinions within the Republican party. Through these focus groups, we sought to provide a comprehensive understanding of the diverse viewpoints that shape the political landscape in these critical states, shedding light on the complex dynamics influencing Republican voters leading up to the 2024 elections.

Key Findings

- Trump's Republican Party is very political and engaged — across all factions. They are mostly “worried,” and the hot topics in their families are out-of-control prices, border and immigration, the cost of the Ukraine War, and woke policies being forced on their children. They were animated on the topic of gender fluidity, in particular.
- Trump dominates his party. His loyalists comprise 63 percent of the party (48 percent Trump loyalists and 13 percent Evangelical Trump loyalists. But the 37 percent do not approve of Trump, and the fault lines emerge in the groups.
- The two groups forming the Trump loyalists see Biden, liberals and open borders as the biggest threat to the nation. They are increasingly skeptical on environmentalists, EVs, and acting to address climate change. They see the U.S. Constitution as hanging by thread and worry if Democrats win the next election, it is a great threat to the nation's future.
- The “Deep State” gets some traction with his loyalist base, but they did not jump on it when Trump said he would clean out the bureaucrats when he is elected. Also, the discussion of federal employees went to too many and lazy, not pursuing their own agenda.
- January 6th is big divide in the Republican Party. The Trump loyalists — 48 percent of the party — identified with the attack when they watched. The Evangelical Trump loyalists were offended by it — violating some sense of order and responsibility. The moderate Republicans and Cheney conservatives opposed or did not identify with those attacking the capitol. And the insurrectionists in the Senate chamber put off all of them.
- The videos and discussion consolidate the Trump loyalists, though the Evangelicals urged him to stop tweeting. Almost half of the moderates and a third of the Cheney conservatives vote for a Democrat, an independent, or are undecided on the vote for Senate or House. (They watched videos of all the candidates.)
- To get a feel for the party dynamics and how much the pro- and anti-Trump assessments play out in 2024, read their emails to President Trump.

Trump's Republican Party

How do you feel about the state of the country?

I would like you to fill in the blank for me in the following sentence: "I feel [BLANK] about the future of our country"

Hot topics? Inflation and high prices

What are some of the hot topic issues you are discussing at home?

Having just paid $4.75 a gallon to fill up, the economy. Grocery shopping – it is more.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

The housing prices. I have grown daughters and they have been trying to buy houses and they had $350,000 budget and couldn't find a house.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

The prices of everything have doubled.

Woman, Moderate GOP, Arizona

Our children that are 20 and 23 it is almost impossible to find rent.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Everything is more expensive. That is all I am hearing. Gas is expensive, the food is going up. Everything.

Woman, Moderate GOP, Arizona

Inflation and high prices.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Inflation and high prices.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

I would say around my dinner table is around the economy and the wage gap between the cost of living and how young adults are having a hard time with their first home purchase.

Man, Cheney conservative, Georgia

Border and immigration

What are some of the hot topic issues you are discussing at home?

The border. The folks in AZ – it is something that is scary. They finally shut the gate that was open.
 Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Immigration. I had a long discussion about that with my family. Everything is going on with the border.
 Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

I am concerned about the border and what we are thought of on the world stage.
 Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

We don't have a border policy, which is creating havoc.
 Man, Cheney conservative, Georgia

I am from the East Coast and immigration wasn't an issue until now. Migrants are being put into 5-star hotels and there are homeless people on the streets.
 Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

There is no border. Anyone can come in a go on welfare or whatever and we have no leadership at all.
 Man, Cheney conservative, Georgia

The cost of war in Ukraine:

What are some of the hot topic issues you are discussing at home?

The war. The war with Russia that we are in. We are pretty much in it and how we are financing it. We cannot afford to do that.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

It is criminal to send all that money over there. The way they are spending money is ridiculous. It bothers the heck out of me.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

My personal issues are the economy and the war in Ukraine and all the money over there.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

We are wasting billions of dollars in Ukraine. We should stop sending money.

Man, Cheney Conservative, Georgia

Money is going to Ukraine. We need to spend money on our roads and bridges.

Man, Cheney Conservative, Georgia

“Woke” and fluid gender get an intense reaction among all factions

Me personally, all this “woke” bullshit– I can’t stand it. The indoctrination of our children for beliefs. Books are being edited. Kids aren’t saying the pledge. The government supports the mutilation of kids and kids with their pronouns and boys want to be girls. I am so sick of it. Our country is pandering to a small portion of society. Companies are as well.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Outdated word now, in terms of this gender fluid stuff. There is nothing wrong with a feminist, it is fine. They should get paid as much as a man, but it is too far, and they are a woke group. There are the bad ones that make the good ones look bad. The feminists are under attack with transgenders. It is kind of positive, neutral.

Supportive of equal rights. It has been taken to the extreme. Both sides have become too extreme on that.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

We have talked a lot about – because we have grandchildren – the changes in the way with what they can and can’t do about the restroom situation. It is not okay with us. I have a 6-year-old granddaughter who would talk to anyone.

Woman, GOP Moderate, Arizona

That is what we talk about. As parents, probably from 6 and under and we stay concerned with our children. The restroom situation. The agenda on our kids, and all the things I know about puberty and how hard it is, and misconstruing is and saying they want something else. We are hyper alert about what our kids are exposed to. That is a hot political topic.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

I don’t like the push about the kids – they seem to be focusing so hard on gender identity. I am worried about that. My daughter is a huge liberal. She thinks that everything is okay. I worry about the future. I worry about our kids having sex changes when they are 10 and then teenagers. I also think the border and the immigrants allowed, that is worrisome for our finances. If we are supporting a couple million illegal people that will be hard.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

I would say there is the Bud Light with the transgender person. Maybe the political stuff is going on. The elections and who is voted in. Those are the two off the top of my head.

Man, Cheney Conservative, Georgia

I have heard about the transgender movement with children. It came up with a friend of mine today at lunch. We need to let children be children.

Woman, GOP Moderate, Arizona

The Trump loyalist base

When asked what the biggest threat to the nation is...

What is the biggest threat to the nation?

Trump loyalists, Arizona

- “Open borders.”
- “Liberals.”
- “The Biden Administration”
- “Biden in general.”
- “Taking in immigrants.”
- “The depletion of our oil reserves. We are energy dependent now.”

Believe U.S. Constitution dangling by a thread

Trump loyalists, Arizona

Dangling by a thread.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Hijacked. Democracy is like the Constitution. It is a wonderful thing, but they have turned it into something ugly. It is almost a dream now. Something that was once there and when you think about it, it is not there. It is used when the left is under attack. Situational ethics. If their position is under attack, then they use it and say democracy is under attack.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

It isn't even there – it is just fading away.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

It is fading away. Tried to strip us of it. It isn't being taught in school like it was when I was a kid. They don't know what would happen if it was taken away from us. Kids are not being taught.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

Under attack.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Will soon be rewritten.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Forgotten.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Challenged.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Our Constitutional rights are at risk.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Democrats winning is believed to be a threat to the nation

I think what they are doing isn't right. I feel like they are lying to us about a lot. The way they try to fight to stay in power – it is all suspicious. When I became a voter, I registered as a Democrat, and I regret it. I voted for Obama, and I regret it. There isn't a lot of positive things the Democrats have done as a country.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

I would say they are a threat. As long as they are in power, and they make the decisions they are then they are a threat. We are in trouble.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

They are a threat, especially if their policies go unchecked.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

The 2nd Amendment, and even to some extent, yeah, freedom of speech, yeah, I feel like they are about big government and not about individual rights.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Constitutional rights are at risk.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Others say they wouldn't go that far...

I would not go that far. He isn't a threat. He is a puppet. Biden is not the threat.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

There is a balancing act. Everyone has their own issues. That's all life is, it's a juggling act. You can't juggle all the balls at once.

Man, Cheney Conservative, Georgia

I don't like to call people Democrats or Republicans. Not all Democrats are bad and there are some that are insightful and have the people in their heart, but some are bad, and you can say that about the Republican party, too.

Woman, GOP Moderate, Arizona

No, they are detrimental to our country.

Man, Cheney Conservative, Georgia

Trump loyalists growing hostile to environmentalists, EVs, and climate change

Trump loyalists, Arizona

- “Frauds, catered to a bunch of bullshit, it does have a positive connotation and now it is bastardized and it now a control mechanism. I care about the environment. They use the environment to tax us – they are being the government. They use it to pull more taxes out of the citizens.”
- “Garbage, not as good for the environment, too expensive. China will take over that whole market. It will take down our auto industry. EVs sound good but we need to have the infrastructure for the grid. California has brownouts.”
- “I believe in global warming. It has been taken to an extreme that is harmful, that is not good. I believe in it. I think we have global warming every few hundred years. This time isn't special. If it is the end of time, then so be it. I don't think it is anything we are doing. We could stop pollution in the United States, and it wouldn't do anything if China doesn't change. Extreme phenomenon. The real issue isn't being discussed. We need to focus on the core issue of it.”
- “Stick to gasoline. Let China do EVs.”
- “Many states don't have the infrastructure on the power grid. We are putting the cart before the horse. Let China get ahead.”
- “EVs are going to do more environmental damage. I think we stick to gas. This push to EV is not there.”

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

- “We don't have enough charging stations. The Tesla routes you where the stations are, and it is dangerous. There aren't enough of them for the push that we have.”
- “Concerning. Climate change. Not sure what we can really do about it. The other countries aren't going to follow suit. That is the problem I have with it. We are just a third of the contribution so if they aren't going to be concerned about it, it will just hurt us to be the only ones making sacrifices.”
- “It is what I heard, and I agree with the thought. If you want an EV great but not everyone should be forced to have it.”
- “I agree with it. There is no such thing as free energy. You are still paying for the power. I don't know if it will decrease jobs. The makeup of jobs in EVs are more than now. Um, I think that we are living now, and gas prices are skyrocketing, and oil is at its highest and that is because we aren't drilling. None of this is free and I agree with the sentiment we just read.”
- “It will raise the cost of a regular automobile so much. The electric ones are outrageous. At least the gas ones are reasonable.”
- “Climate Change is like abortion, that won't affect our country. What will is the money. If they all put a million dollars into the economy and have their website and what they stand for, then the economy would be a lot better.”

Deep State and federal employees

Suspicion of “The Deep State” gets reaction among Trump loyalists, but was not issue highlighted after videos

Trump loyalists, Arizona

I believe that it is true, that there is a Deep State. I believe it is true, also. Marxists. Protecting their own interests – look what they did to Donald Trump. I believe there is a small group of people controlling world finances.

Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

Conspiracy.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

I think it needs to be explored and you have to find out who the leaders are and what their agenda is. It needs more investigation. It is obscure. It is outside of the general political landscape, it is hidden. It is known what it is for being secret and different political operatives. We want to know more about it.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

A wolf in sheep’s clothing. Hiding right in front of our faces, a lot of lobbying. We don’t see it because – I work with public agencies, it’s all public, just no one cares about it. It is outside people’s everyday lives. It makes them unaccountable.

Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

When it comes to federal employees, though, sentiment is mixed and not about pursuing their own agenda

Trump loyalists, Arizona

It isn't all their fault, people need work.
Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

I would never hire one in the private sector.
Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

They don't have a good work ethic.
Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Overpaid and underqualified. Not trustworthy.
Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Unaware of how the rest of the country lives – if you have a job for the federal government, you have a job for life. I don't think they care about what is going on.
Man, Trump loyalist, Arizona

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

Overpaid.
Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Some of them aren't very good.
Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

They don't want to do their job. Maybe they are underpaid.
Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

They seem irritated to help you.
Woman, Evangelical Trump loyalist, Georgia

Entitled and lazy.

January 6th

For January 6th, Trump loyalists identified with the protesters – but others did not

Trump loyalists, Arizona

- I was watching and part of me was rooting for them.
- I was rooting but knew it wouldn't make a difference. The outlandish costumes were too much. It was like watching a car race, you are kind of excited. You don't want anyone hurt but you want to see a crash. I was excited to see people standing up for what was right. Something happened during this last election. I agreed in theory with what was going on.
- I believe the way it went down, and the reporting is a hoax. The FBI was involved. It didn't go down the way they said it went down. It pisses me off.
- It was wild when I started to see it. Then I was rooting for them but at the end of the day nothing was going to change. It was exciting to see them do it.
- Their anger boiled over. It was understandable. They weren't heard at the ballot box.
- If I was there, I would have joined in. I didn't like watching it, but I would have gotten wound up and went in as well.
- I felt kind of disappointed and ashamed. I think that you can be frustrated, and you cannot damage buildings and endanger people.
- When you lose an election, that's it. The people have spoken. You can't endanger people and hurt law enforcement. Everyone voted. Our electoral process has never been questioned until now. This had never happened before. There are too many moving parts for someone to steal the election.

Sentiment changed when asked about the protester sitting in the Senate Chair and taking a picture

Trump loyalists, Arizona

- Where were the police?
- Foolish
- This is something you would see with a banana republic. The only one that died was one protester. No police died.
- A law enforcement officer died out front.

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

- Scared that he can get in there and do that..
- Childish.
- It made me feel hypocritical. You want to hold this democracy and hold it upright but then you break into the chamber. It was a double standard for those people.
- Juvenile.

GOP Moderates, Arizona

- I thought he was arrogant.
- Arrogant.
- It was disrespectful.
- He was out of line.
- Disrespectful.

Cheney Conservatives, Georgia

- I don't know. I see people do stuff like that and it makes me question why they are doing that. Are you doing it for attention?
- It was theatrical. I was disheartened that some people were killed.
- I wasn't rooting for them, but when you look at the total number of people there, the capitol police, and the politicians, the people I liked the least weren't the rioters.

Evangelical Trump loyalists criticized the actions taken on January 6th

Evangelical Trump loyalists, Georgia

- Embarrassed.
- Confused. What came out was afterwards.
- Bizarre that they were waltzing in between the security guards. On the outside was hectic but, on the inside, it was like people going for a stroll.
- Embarrassed and confused. How dumb could you possibly be. Disrespectful and inconsiderate.
- Scared that he can get in there and do that. People can just walk in as well. Kids like our borders. We have all the security, but they are still coming across. If they want to pay taxes, then fine.
- Childish.
- It made me feel hypocritical. You want to hold this democracy and hold it upright but then you break into the chamber. It was a double standard for those people.
- Juvenile.

Moderate Republicans and most of Cheney conservatives critical of January 6th

GOP Moderates, Arizona

- Saddened.
- Corruption.
- Angry.
- Confused. Like, why does it have to be like that?
- Violent.
- I am trying to remember. I think I was confused. When I heard I didn't know what instigated it.
- Out of control.
- I thought he was arrogant.
- Arrogant.
- It was disrespectful.
- He was out of line.
- Disrespectful.

Cheney Conservatives, Georgia

- "I was split. The reason they did it was ridiculous. They showed the government that they are not in charge and Americans can take it back at any point. I wasn't rooting for them.
- It was chaotic and certainly had a few bad apples. I don't think it was representative of the United States. They went out of control. There was barely a hiccup.
- I can't say I had an opinion about it. If you look at the last couple years with protests, in comparison to that it honestly didn't seem like that big of a deal. If that is the standard of how people behave.
- The principle was in the right place but there are bad apples.
- I don't know. I see people do stuff like that and it makes me question why they are doing that. Are you doing it for attention?
- It was theatrical. I was disheartened that some people were killed.
- I wasn't rooting for them but when you look at the total number of people there, the capitol police, and the politicians, the people I liked the least weren't the rioters.
- January 6th is overplayed. It isn't going to get the reaction.

When it comes to Evangelical loyalists, half ask for no more social media from Trump, and are looking for a different style, though vote for him

Mr. Trump,

I hate that you are going through all this with all these election trials. It just seems so unfair given what Hillary and Hunter Biden's son have done that you are the one on trial here. It's just because they are looking for a reason to get you not to run, we all know that. We all know that you are the one to get the job done, your business experience shows that. People criticize you because you get the job done whether or not it hurts anyone's feelings. I support you, but just stay off Twitter! You would be a lot easier to defend if you'd just get off Twitter.

I want him to know that if he is elected for president to stick to doing the job and less quiet on social media. I want him to get inflation down and the immigration at the border under control. Help get America back on track!

I'm praying for you Sir and hope that the world becomes enlightened when they realize this has all been a ploy to slow down or stop the most eligible Presidential candidate to save our country. Please stand firm in your beliefs and ideals and know that the American people that have any sense support and love you. But please please stay off Twitter.

Stop tweeting stupid st, tweet things we need to hear. Drug testing for all welfare recipients, close the borders say what you plan to do dont live in the past stop sending $ overseas we need it here real education is needed AMD FOR GOODNESS SAKE PUT A CAP ON WELFARE GOING FORWARD - 2 kids max per family....that would eliminate baby makers as a living and ease that national debt! Best of luck!

Trump i hope you get elected, you have my vote. I miss the way the economy with you in office..
Mr. Trump, I agree with your policies and support what you have done and will do, but please try to be more concise and less abrasive in your delivery of your beliefs and policies.
Dear Donald Trump you are my president
You have my support, Mr. Trump. Nobody comes close to your stature and will to fight the establishment and truly make America Great Again! God's speed. May you win in a landside!
Dear Mr. President, hang in there. You will be fine. It's in the bag.
I really agreed with alot of your policies and beliefs. I also believe that you embarrassed yourself and our country on the world stage. I am voting for you again because I believe we need our borders closed and our economy improved. Please don't let me down again.
Dear Trump, be more respectful to people. You're getting in your own way. It's important that your substance based and not just angry at everyone.
Dear mr T, ha ha, I pity the fool!! If you came out with that it would be wild. Anyways I am happy with how you have handled the job. I know it takes a toll and especially when the hate is amped up. Just keep pushing. That's the only way we win. Is if we persevere!! Thank you for all you do.

Stay strong, America believes in you!!!

Dear President Trump, I truly hope you get reelected. This country really needs your leadership. I would hope that this time around you remember to treat all Americans fairly. Your business skills are what this country needs however sometimes you need to let the work stand for itself and not get so involved in the he said she said of Washington politics. Our country needs to get back to unity. I pray for our country nightly.

I want him to know that if he is elected for president to stick to doing the job and less quiet on social media. I want him to get inflation down and the immigration at the border under control. Help get America back on track!

Stay true and comitted to your mission. Continue making it about our country rather than bashing other candidates. Don't continue to dredge up things from the past over and over, or continue to play the victim. We know what you did during your last term, and we want that same headstrong, confident president again. Get things turned around for our country.

Dear Trump- Please focus on the issues, stay determined and steadfast but work on your delivery..... you can make a comeback even with liberals if you can just focus on being more presidential and I think that you can do it. You have a lot of materials this go around and I believe that you can focus on this current administrations failings and what you will do get americans back on track again and that will be a very positive thing. But don't be juvenile and don't be emotional, be presidential.

Dear Mr. Trump, I want to say thank you for all you did during your term. I am especially moved by your stance on abortion and pro-life, as well as many social issues. I believe under your presidency the economy was better. I hope you are elected into office once more and most of all I hope you do as you say you will. As a middle class American family that is living paycheck to paycheck we need you to keep your word. Thank you, - Meg R i would write Donald and i would tell them to be better leader for the country that he would need to not be so radial and be the person that could work on both sides of the party if they are republican or an democrats party . It would be agreeing on the issues becau and also se they are going to support the country . As i can say for me in the country that this is what we would need to lead this country to an better spot in the fuiture and also now

Dr. Former President Trump.

I would first to say that you where probably the worst thing to happen to my beloved country since slavery. Your polices where a joke and you only did this to fill your fires and your own pockets. Your fear mongering and underhanded tactics where a brilliant play but the mass amounts of people in the country woke up and see you what you are for a Snake oil salesman.

Please doe us all a favor and move back to Epstein island.

Thank you Mr. Trump for your service to this country. You have made a difference in our country. We need your help moving forward. Your policies would be best delivered and executed by another GOP candidate that shares your believes and love for this country. I know this is a big ask, but would you please put your support around the next GOP primary winner. Thank you!

Trump, While I do not care for you as a person I believe in what you have done for this country and can appreciate your shred approach to running the country, With that said, please learn to be a better human being.

try to improve the delivery to your speech to recapture previous audiences and win back votes

Dear Mr. Trump, Although, you have done some wonderful things for the country, you have also done some very divisive and polarizing things that has increased the gap within our communities. I thank you for the time and impact you made on our country, but I think we can all agree that it is time for you to pass the torch to someone that represents the best parts of you; but is going to start closing that gap and bringing people together. I would never ask you to change who you are as a person, so with that being said it is a matter of respecting your pride and knowing when it is time to move on. It's time for someone to unite this country together and unfortunately you are too polarizing to be that person.

Dear Donald, if you could control your narcissitic behavior, not fire someone when they disagree with your personal strategy, rather listen to all sides before you make your presidential decision, and stop boasting about all the wonderful things you think you accomplished, I'd vote for you again.

I would like to see you focus primarily on policy and accomplishments. I want to see you take a more sober, and dry approach to campaigning. In particular, fewer personal attacks. I believe your policies and accomplishments separate you from the other candidates. To be clear, I do not want you to become a canned politician spouting talking points. I want you to speak to voters in a more calm, and sober way, but still genuine and off the cuff without reading from a card. I would also like to see anything about January 6th and the 2020 election to be put to rest. I don't want to hear about the past, I want to hear about the future that you are offering. Also, don't go easy on Biden. You should point out his issues. But don't make personal attacks that aren't reasonable.

Dear Donald: Continue to tell the truth and stand behind the American patriots. Also, when you get back into the White House in 2025, put Biden and his entire corrupt family in prison.

Moderate Republican's Email to Donald Trump

Dear Mr . Trump. We listen to all of your speeches and you are always so mean and derogative to others. Kindness goes a long way. take note. Can't everyone agree to get along for human mankind.

Good Evening, President Trump , you speak truth but your biggest problem is tone it down you are your worst enemy.

Donald, please consider shutting up. You are great at running the finances of this country, great at pointing out what is wrong, but please stop talking, you come off as uninformed. And stay off of Twitter! Oh sorry, X

Our country needs your help and they need you to put differences behind and think of the future of the nation

My email to Donald Trump : President Trump, I would like to congratulate you on the successes you did achieve while in office. I thank you for your hard work and effort to make our country a better place. What I would have liked to see more of from you is professionalism, class, honesty, more presidential like behavior. Less finger pointing and more facts, what is the issue and how do you plan to fix it. Own your mistakes and be human about what went wrong and what you would have done differently.

Dear Donald Trump, I think there were many things you did well for our country. I also think that you are very polarizing and that is not what our country needs. We need to unite not fight. I think in order for America to move forward we need you to step aside and allow for a new candidate to be the face of the party. Thank you.

Mr Trump

I wish you were an honest person. You did many great things while in office. But your bashing and disrespectful toward humans is unexceptable. You do not deserve to lead this amazing country again.

Dear Mr. Trump, As a moderate citizen seeking progress, I urge you to be more bipartisan in your initiatives and less polarizing with your behavior. Seek to bring unity to the country rather than division. Empower younger generations to seek solutions rather than belabor problems. Reduce fear mongering and support innovative thought and progress. It's been challenging to sit from the sidelines and watch you spiral personally and professionally during your time in the presidency. If you were to be elected again, I would urge you to embody selflessness, set aside your ego, and seek to leave a legacy of positivity.
