Q.80 (ASK ONLY IN CO, FL, IA, MI, MN, MO, NV, NH, NM, NC, OH, PA, VA, WI, MT, IN) (SPLIT D) Now I'm going to read you a pair of statements that describe what some Democrats and Republicans in Congress have been saying about President Bush's financial proposal. After I read these statements, please tell me which one you agree with more.²

(Democratic Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress must act quickly to get our economy back on track with a plan that protects taxpayers first and foremost. I opposed Bush's financial bailout proposal because it had no oversight provisions and didn't place limits on CEO's salaries. But now I support the new plan because it restricts compensations for CEOs and aids homeowners facing foreclosures. We must support this plan to rescue our economy and help America's middle class get back on its feet."

(Republican Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress should not pass a bill that puts Wall St. ahead of Americans by using taxpayer money to bail them out. This plan will only continue the big government policies that created this financial mess, trusts the massive and corrupt government to provide oversight and regulation on the market and will encourage other companies to behave recklessly at the expense of taxpayers. Congress should work towards a plan that puts American taxpayers first, not Wall Street."

Q.81 (ASK ONLY IN CO, FL, IA, MI, MN, MO, NV, NH, NM, NC, OH, PA, VA, WI, MT, IN)
 (SPLIT C) Now I'm going to read you a pair of statements that describe what some Democrats and Republicans in Congress have been saying about President Bush's financial proposal. After I read these statements, please tell me which one you agree with more.

(Democratic Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress should not pass President Bush's financial bailout proposal as is and give the Treasury a blank check because this bill does not set any caps for CEO salaries or retirement packages for companies getting federal money, and it does not reduce mortgage foreclosures so we can help more struggling Americans keep their homes. Taxpayers should not foot the bill for reckless corporate behavior."

(Republican Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress should not pass a bill that puts Wall St. ahead of Americans by using taxpayer money to bail them out. This plan will only continue the big government policies that created this financial mess, trusts the massive and corrupt government to provide oversight and regulation on the market and will encourage other companies to behave recklessly at the expense of taxpayers. Q.82 (ASK ONLY IN CO, FL, IA, MI, MN, MO, NV, NH, NM, NC, OH, PA, VA, WI, MT, IN)
 (SPLIT E) Now I'm going to read you a pair of statements that describe what some Democrats and Republicans in Congress have been saying about President Bush's financial proposal. After I read these statements, please tell me which one you agree with more.

(Democratic Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress must act quickly to get our economy back on track with a plan that protects taxpayers first and foremost. I opposed Bush's financial bailout proposal because it had no oversight provisions and didn't place limits on CEO's salaries. But now I support the new plan because it restricts compensations for CEOs and aids homeowners facing foreclosures. We must support this plan to rescue our economy and help America's middle class get back on its feet."

(Republican Incumbent/Candidate) says, "Congress should pass President Bush's financial bailout proposal because we need this legislation now to help millions of Americans get back on their feet. We need to act immediately to pass a clean bill. We don't have time to debate amendments to the bill nor do we have the money to add pork to the legislation that already has a $700 billion dollar price tag."
